

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

MATTHEW FARWELL

Defendant

CRIMINAL No. 24-cr-10259-DJC

ASSENTED-TO MOTION FOR EXCLUSION OF TIME UNDER THE SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

The United States of America, by Leah B. Foley, United States Attorney, and Elizabeth C. Riley, Brian A. Fogerty and Torey B. Cummings, Assistant U.S. Attorneys for the District of Massachusetts, moves to exclude the time period from October 16, 2025, through October 5, 2026, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B)(iv), on the grounds that the ends of justice served by excluding this period outweigh the public and defendant's interest in a speedy trial. The government further asks this Court to issue the attached proposed Order of Excludable Delay. The defendant, Matthew Farwell, through his counsel of record, assents to this motion and the entry of the proposed order.

In support of the motion, the government states as follows:

1. On October 16, 2025, the Court set this matter for jury trial beginning on October 5, 2026. ECF No. 58.
2. Since the grand jury returned the indictment in this case, the government has produced hundreds of thousands of pages of discovery materials, including many hours of recordings, and voluminous data extracted from several electronic devices. The attached Order of Excludable Delay is necessary to ensure that the defendant has sufficient time to review and examine the discovery, file pretrial motions, and prepare for trial. The parties jointly agree that this period constitutes “the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence,” and thus the ends of justice served by excluding this period outweigh the public and defendant’s interest in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B)(iv).

3. A proposed order is attached.

Respectfully submitted,

LEAH B. FOLEY
United States Attorney
